

A New Sheriff for a Corrupted Town.

Just as westerns depicted the lone Sheriff fighting evil, one real life independent candidate for Sheriff is campaigning in Fairfax, Virginia for the chance to fight Big Brother. His name is Chris DeCarlo and he has produced a corruption fighting western genre rap video that includes horseback riding and a gunfight.

Viewers of his Youtube video titled "Democracy Rides Again," hear Big Brother's men discussing their attempts to corrupt the candidate for Sheriff and a conversation about their pact with the devil. The men are concerned because as an incorruptible Sheriff DeCarlo would use the laws on the books to arrest them and destroy their racket.

Mr. DeCarlo raps that he is qualified to be Sheriff because he wants to protect the power of the people and the Constitution. "I know where they're hiding, I'll deputize the truth and we'll all start riding."
